  - You've done op-eds on these in the past -- you may not want to do again.
  - Innocence commission -- with rash of exonerations since last session this still may be worth pushing
  - Increasing compensation for wrongfully convicted, DA letter requirement, etc --
  - Eyewitness identification Reform -- We have a scaled down bill-- still good-- that the Expert from El Paso said he will come testify on. Most of the exonerations in the past year have been eye id error.
- Hate Crimes - mandatory sensitivity training, victim's confidentiality, hate crimes database, victim pseudonym
- ID Theft -- I think you should file the whatever the respectable groups feel is the best legislation out there. An issue that effects everyone.
- HIV prison testing on entry, Condom distribution --
- Prison Rape Bill -- You expressed interest in this in the interim, so we had the research done and the advocates pull a bill and research together, ACLU-Prison Accountability Project interested in helping you push
- HPD bill requests---just make them happy
- Sex Offenders
  - Ending Statute of Limitations on Sexual Abuse - You and Eltife filed this bill last session. Dewhurst is now talking about this issue in the campaign. This will get you a good law and order stripe, and enhance your stance against the Death Penalty aspect ---- criminal defense lawyers hate the bill
  - Online Child Predators-- You were Senate Sponsor of bill form last session. We have new improved bills we can file form other states in this area
  - Death Penalty Defense-- We have lined up many child advocate organizations who are against this in case you want o mobilize a defense
- Substance Abuse treatment diversion - Under the radar -- I think this may be the most significant thing that you have me working on in terms of the number of real lives it could make a difference and altering our criminal justice system. But I think it is stuff, at least at this point, that is done more effectively without a great deal of noise. A lot of time and work to totally restructure the nature of an entire branch of the CJ system.
